

Cosmic Muse Gatherings

Pricing & Packaging Guide

Think astrology meets dinner party, wellness retreat, and your favorite deep conversation - all rolled into one unforgettable experience! Cosmic Muse Gatherings are interactive astrology experiences designed to spark connection, self-discovery, and plenty of "wait... that's SO me" moments.

Pricing clarity: Investment is calculated on a per-person basis. The "Starting At" or base price reflects the minimum investment required to book each experience and is based on the minimum recommended guest count. Final investment is determined by the total number of confirmed attendees at booking. (Example: Cosmic Connections starts at $1,000 based on 5 guests ($200/person). A gathering with 8 guests would be $1,600.)

|---------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Booking Window      | All Cosmic Gatherings must be booked a minimum of 21 days prior to the event date.                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Payment             | Full payment is required upon booking to secure the event date and begin preparation of personalized materials.                                                                                                                                       |
| Guest Information   | Each guest must provide a full name, birth date, birth time (am/pm), and birth location upon booking. Birth information is kept strictly confidential and used only to prepare event materials and astrology interpretations.                         |
| Additional Guests   | Additional guests may be added based on availability and will be invoiced at the applicable per-person rate. Guests added after the attendee submission deadline may participate, but are not guaranteed personalized blueprint or printed materials. |
| Cancellation Policy | All bookings are non-refundable. If cancellation is necessary, payment may be applied as a credit toward a rescheduled gathering within 12 months of the original event date.                                                                         |
| Transfers           | In an emergency or unforeseen circumstance, bookings may be transferred to a new host and rescheduled within 12 months. The new host is responsible for communicating updated attendee information, guest count, location, and scheduling details.    |

Host Expectations

To ensure the best possible experience for guests, hosts are responsible for providing:

- A suitable gathering space for the event and anticipated guest count
- A television, projector, or presentation screen for visual materials
- An audio or microphone system, if needed based on venue size and guest count
- Advance notice to The Mirrored Muse regarding required presentation connection cables or audiovisual requirements
- All food, beverages, tableware, and hospitality arrangements, if desired
- Accurate attendee information submitted upon booking

If presentation equipment is unavailable, the gathering can still be facilitated; however, visual materials and educational components may be adapted accordingly.

How the Booking Process Works

- 1. Choose your experience: Select the gathering tier that best fits your event, group size, and desired depth.
- 2. Submit your inquiry: Share your date, location, guest count, and event details through the website form.
- 3. Confirm booking + payment: Once availability is confirmed, payment is due in full to reserve your date.
- 4. Submit attendee information: The host collects and submits guest birth information upon booking so personalized materials can be prepared.
- 5. Gather + spill the cosmic tea: The Mirrored Muse arrives ready to facilitate an intentional, memorable, and meaningful experience.
